TNA PRESIDENT'S LETTER

The summer is over so the fall coin season has begun. I encourage each of you to attend as many shows as possible. Along with your local coin clubs and dealers, shows are the best place to meet collectors with interests similar to your own. I have begun and renewed many enduring friendships at coin shows. It's an opportunity not to be missed. Also, you may find that particular or peculiar item that's been eluding you for so long.

The TNA web site has been updated by Mike Grant. Take a look. There's been a few problems accessing the new site. If you can't reach it at www.tna.org please let Mike Grant or myself know so we can correct the problem.

I often wonder what particular pleasure motivated people to collect coins. Is it knowledge? Is it rarity? Is it the beauty of the metallic art? Is it for profit? I believe the answer is as varied as the people who collect. Today, as I'm writing this, I'm experiencing one of the facets of collecting I enjoy the most. Allow me to explain. I have been looking for a particular coin for about ten years. It comes in choice BU or relatively low grade, nothing in between. A couple of years ago I had the opportunity to acquire this particular coin. This week I learned a high grade example is available. Next week I'll get to see the coin. Meanwhile I'm wondering, "Will it be everything I hope it will be?" Maybe it will, maybe it won't. Will it be priced reasonable? Maybe it will, maybe it won't. Will I buy it? Maybe I will, maybe I won't. But regardless of the end result, I will have enjoyed for a full week the anticipation of the possibilities. Anticipation to me is one of the underrated pleasures of collecting. Many times over the next week before I see this coin I'll think about how it might look, its unique history, how it might add to my collection, how it might be a vehicle to share knowledge with other collectors and those thoughts and the pleasure derived from them are mine forever at no cost. And if I don't buy the coin? Well, I'll anticipate the next time one might become available and the process repeats itself. I believe anticipation is truly one of the greatest pleasures collectors experience. It's what keeps us going to show after show, searching junk box after junk box. Were each anticipating finding that particular item that's special to us, whether it's a bargain, an unusually elusive item, a piece of historical collateral material filling a hole in an album or something else, it's the anticipation that we may find what we're looking for that keeps us going. I hope each of you enjoy and savor the anticipation as much as I do and good luck in your search.

Sincerely,

Kirk Menczer

A Few Words From The Editor

Mike Grant

The TNA has some wonderful things going on. We have a very nice Home Page on the Internet, this is a very professional set up and I would like everyone to take advantage of it. This page will be changed once every month or two as new items come in.

I also have a new internet address, it is a long one so keep this page for future reference www.MPG4TNA@worldnet.att.net. I also have a fax number if you would like to fax something to me (817) 496-2390. This is in my computer so you need to call me first to make sure the computer is turned on, or I am not on it. Call me at (817) 496-2388. As you know we now have an Arlington PO Box, listed on the front cover.

The Coins for A's program has some new people in charge of it and they are certainly on top of things. The board of directors will meet them at the September meeting in Austin. I understand they have been corresponding with a number of people already. Please feel free to write or call them anytime of the day. Jim & Barbara Medford 815 Waggoner Dr. Arlington TX 76013, (817) 274-3965.

You should know the new Mac Kennedy memorial award given to Mr. Linke was the brain child of our past President Joe Olson. Mr. Olson also is funding this award completely. Many thanks to Joe for this donation to the TNA in the memory of Mac Kennedy.

Sincerely

Mike Grant

COINS FOR A'S

Almost before we are able to begin on the program, we have received a donation to the Coins for A's Program! In the mail the day this report was being prepared for The TNA News, was a check for $50 to be used as we saw fit. This donation has been sent to us by the Red River Coin Club which includes, among other cities, Wichita Falls, Seymour, and Iowa Park. It is in memory of Red River Coin Club member Bill McCue who passed away recently while vacationing in North Dakota. We wish to extend our sympathy to his family, and a large "thank you" to the Red River Coin Club members for thinking of Coins for A's as a memorial. We will try to make the most worthwhile use we can of the funds.

While we are thanking people, we would like to thank Ken Horn of Amarillo, TNA District 11 Governor, Ray Whyborn of Amarillo, TNA District 13 Governor, and Nela Runkle of the Golden Spread Coin Club in Amarillo, all of whom have written us offering their support for the Coins for A's program and suggestions for further improvement. We would welcome correspondence from anyone with complaints, compliments or ideas. Most especially, if you or a young person you know about has been disappointed by the response they have received from the Coins for A's program in the past, please send us their names and addresses. We will be in touch with them immediately, and send them a self-addressed, stamped postcard they can send back letting us know what the problem was. If it is in our power, we will see to it they are taken care of, and try to avoid such problems in the future.

Since the program is still in transition, we have no report for this issue of the TNA News on inventory or requests, but as soon as we know what we have and what we need, we will be publishing that information. Our plan is to keep everyone in TNA posted on how many students we are serving, who is helping us out, and what we see as our obstacles and opportunities. We are considering some possible changes that might help the program to work a little better, such as special coin mailers, and would be glad to hear from anyone who has had some experience along those lines and would be willing to share what they learned. Our goal is that once we are up and running, every young person will receive a response from us within a week of the time we hear from them. We may not always make that, but we will be trying, and we want to thank everyone for their patience and continued support.

Denton County Draft Script by Frank Clark

Over 90 counties in Texas issued scrip during the Civil War. These were usually receivable for all county dues or payable in Confederate paper. There are several variations on the payable theme depending upon which county issued the scrip. Most of the scrip is dated during the years 1862 or 1863. The names of the printers of most of these scrip notes are not present on the notes themselves, but we know that many of them were produced by a newspaper office in the community. Some of the scrip has been printed on the back of fiscal paper. This class of scrip can be described as "very rare" for most, if not all, Texas counties that issued it.

Denton County issued scrip in 50 cents, $1, $2, and $3 denominations. The 50 cents and $2 denominations are not listed in any reference books, but they are known to exist in a private collection.

After many years of searching, I was able to locate a $1 Denton County Draft with very strong signatures which is illustrated in this article. The signatures are those of S.A. Venters as County Clerk, and J.M. Blount as Chief Justice.

S.A. Venters was born on June 27, 1822 and was one of the founders of Denton County. He arrived in the area in the mid 1840's. Denton became a county in 1846. Venters was elected to the position of County Clerk in 1848 and served many terms. In 1851 he was appointed postmaster at New Alton, then the county seat. In 1874 he was elected to the State Legislature to represent Denton County. He was also a member of the L.O.O.F. Lodge. Venters was much admired by those who knew him. He died in Denton on March 12, 1881.

J.M. Blount settled in the town of Denton in 1857. He had moved from Mississippi when he was 34 years old. He assisted in the laying out of the town of Denton as soon as he arrived. Soon thereafter the county seat was moved from Alton to Denton. Blount was one of Denton's first businessmen and engaged in the sale of goods for many years. He was elected to the post of county judge (Chief Justice) and served several terms. He was elected to the Texas Senate in 1866. Blount and the rest of Governor Throckmorton's administration was removed by the Federal Government due to the policies of Reconstruction. Blount was later elected to several other city and county offices. He was a Royal Arch Mason and a member of the Baptist Church. He did much to build and improve the city and county of Denton and was recognized as one of the county's outstanding citizens. His wife Sofia died in 1869. Blount died on February 22, 1889.

The reference books I consulted do not refer to the backs of the Denton County Draft. When I obtained my example I was delighted to find that it was printed on unused check stock originally printed by Danforth & Hulcy of New York and Philadelphia. Their imprint is on the back of the scrip as part of the check design. Danforth & Hulft operated from 1847 to 1850, when it became involved in several mergers which culminated in the establishment of the American Bank Note Company in 1858.

The face of the scrip was printed in such a manner that produced an "inverted back." As can be seen in the illustration, the check stock contained a vignette of a steam ship with full sails churning through rough waters. To me, the presence of this contemporary vignette, and the fact that the scrip was printed on an unused check adds greatly to the history of this rare piece.

I was very happy to obtain an example of Denton County scrip, and enjoyed researching the history behind its issuance. Even though ownership of it and my research has enlightened me in several aspects, there remain many unanswered questions about these financial instruments.

Cameo Proof Coins

by E.L. (Bob) Bills

After collecting coins for sixty six (66) years, I have finally devised a way to describe them in a way that a beginner to the hobby can understand. Almost no grading expert, none of the books I have or the grading services even start to explain how a coin can be worth much more than another in this area of CAMEO PROOF COINS before 1971.

Val Webb in his book does begin to address the problem but his comments are with the coins from 1950 to 1964.

I would like to go back to the beginning of PROOF COINS and establish a way of standard descriptions that would apply to coins from any country from 1800 to say 1973, when the mint began making all coins struck in PROOF as CAMEO'S. My system does not address grade. It only pertains to when the coin came off a new die. Grading then should be after the coin has been classified as a CAMEO. You must understand first that a PROOF coin dated 1898 or 1936 or 1963 all have the same thing in common, they are PROOFS. They may be CAMEO but are most likely not CAMEO at all. My conclusions are that we really have no system to rate these proofs. To start we must establish some sort of rate. Mine is as follows:

CAMEO I A PROOF COIN that is totally white or frosted on all devices, legends, dates and on the entire raised portion of the coin surface with no fade spots in the deepest recesses of the coin. Normally this will be only the first 1 through 5 coins struck from a new or repolished die. (More on repolished die dates)

CAMEO II A PROOF COIN that is heavy CAMEO frosted but begins to show fade spots, but only in the deepest crevices of the upraised designs on the coin. Normally this will be only the coins number 6 through 15 struck from a new or repolished die.

CAMEO III A PROOF COIN that is heavy frosted but shows fade all across the valleys in the design of the coin. This coin is usually the one struck from a new or repolished die and would number 16 through 30.

CAMEO IV A PROOF COIN that is lightly CAMEO showing some frosting but only on the highest spots. This coin usually would number 31 through number 50, struck from a new or repolished die.

CAMEO V A typical PROOF COIN with little or no CAMEO frosting. Just a typical PROOF, normally found at any coin show.

NEW DIE One that has been manufactured and has never been used to strike a coin

REPOLISHED DIE One that has been used to strike many coins and has been repaired to be used again to strike coins

GRADING Should be based on any PROOF, only after the CAMEO contrast has been established. Frost break, die scratches, spots, hair lines and damage are easy to determine a coins value. I often find coins that are PROOF CAMEO I, that are priced as MS 66 or MS 67 white, that should be carefully examined by any potential purchaser as to the true CAMEO contrast. Most true full frosty CAMEO I are extremely rare and are priced much lower than they should be if beauty and rarity are considered as a criteria to value.

I realize the many grades that can be numbered by this method, but I have been getting lots of bargains by using this CAMEO contrast first eliminating most PROOFS.

I have found PROOF CAMEO values to be as follows

- #5 A typical PROOF COIN grey sheet Bid to Ask for the grade
- #4 One and one half times the value of a #5
- #3 Double the #4 value
- #2 Double the #3 value
- #1 Double to triple the #2 value

Never forget the grade MS 60 through 67. Start with that to establish a value, only after the CAMEO contrast is determined. I would not recommend any grade that is less than MS 63. Not all coins will fit neatly into these CAMEO contrast categories, as you will learn, nickel is harder than copper or silver. Hardness does effect the life of a die, so adjust your CAMEO contrast accordingly, but if you start now, maybe you will find that next CAMEO contrast I coin that grades MS 67 or 68 before I do. Good hunting, enjoy the hobby and say hello the next time we meet. Maybe we will have a beautiful coin to discuss for a few hours.

TREASURE OF XERXES HUGE HOARD OF SILVER BURIED CIRCA 450 BC

And now, as he looked and saw the whole Hellespont covered with the vessels of his fleet and all the shore and every plain about Abydos as full as possible of men, Xerxes congratulated himself upon his good fortune; but after a little while he wept. His uncle Artabanus, who was with him at the time, asked about this strange expression of contradictory feelings. "I was thinking," Xerxes replied, "and it came into my mind how pitifully short human life is."

Herodotus III, 45-46

This moment in history described by the ancient historian Herodotus was perhaps one of the greatest military undertakings in history given the current technology. The accounts relate that the great Persian King Xerxes amassed an army of 1,700,000 men for his invasion of Greece in 480 BC. An entire city was needed to feed the army just two meals, and an entire river ran dry when they drank. And huge quantities of silver coins were struck to finance the massive military payroll and all the expenses of huge military operations. The Hellespont was the water way at least a mile wide connecting the Black Sea and the Mediterranean Sea and separating Europe from Asia Minor. In order to move his vast army Xerxes commanded his engineers, mostly Phoenicians and Egyptians, to build a bridge. To do this 674 ships were tied together in a double row and planks were laid over the decks. The planks were covered with brushwood and dirt to create a road. Xerxes invaded Greece and very nearly succeeded in conquering the civilized world.

As the Persians moved through northern Greece they were met at the pass of Thermopylae where the 300 Spartans led by Leonidas fought to the last man, and since still delayed the Persian advance long enough for the Greek cities to prepare. Although Xerxes captured Athens the Athenians had fled with their fleet to the nearby island of Salamis where the Persian fleet was defeated by the more experienced Athenian navy. The army of the allied Greek city-states, led by Spartans was able to defeat the Persian army at Plataea in 479 BC and effectively ended Xerxes attempted conquest of Greece.

Xerxes is long dead, and his observations on the brevity of human existence still applies today even though we average more than twice the usual life span of the ancients. By collecting, studying and handling the coins of the ancients our human experience can be greatly enhanced. In our hands we have relics of great kings who commanded huge armies to conquer kingdoms now vanished. These huge treasures of precious metals that are now unearthed from the paths of these ancient armies are sometimes the only tangible links that we have. Now you can expand your horizons to the Fifth Century BC with a modest contribution to the Jonathan K. Kern Co.

This hoard of silver was composed of over 1000 pieces of struck silver. A single siglos averages 5.55 gram of nearly pure silver and depict the Great King of Persia or an archer in an action pose. Some interpret his picture as the archaic art expression of running, and others describe him as kneeling. These coins were struck with a heavy lead hammer on very thick oblong planchets which look like copper blanks, with a chisel field upper die depicting the archer. The lower die was probably imbedded in wood or bone to secure it. The lower or reverse die of these coins was used in the manner of the very first coin ever produced in the world. This lower die was a roughly rectangular raised metal lump appearing in hundreds of my ferocious variations. The raised reverse die creates an incuse impression on the backs of the siglos. Museum studies now in progress utilize the reverse incuse impressions for quick die referencing since the obverse impression of the Great King is frequently off center. These coins represented a huge explosion in the production of coined money, and were struck rapidly to fill the need for pre-wedged silver authorized by a powerful ruler.

The Great King is shown holding a spear and a bow on the siglos attributed to the Asia Minor mint of Sardis, in Lydia and a bow and a dagger on the other type which is possibly all from a different mint further south. Frequently they are countermarked with tiny punches by merchants or bankers possibly to attest to the quality of the silver. We can sell either type in nice fine grade for $37 each, or nice very fine for $77 each or a nice extremely fine for $277 each. The raised obverse always trades much less than the incused reverse so our nice fine will usually give an extremely fine reverse.

Discounted pair price: one of each type in nice fine for $70

Buy your own mini hoard of Persian siglos in nice fine, with all different reverses in extremely fine. 30 coins for $925.

In nice very fine one of each type only $150 for the pair.

For extremely fine coin no discount - call in to confirm availability.

In memory of Joseph T. Wells III

From The Bellaire Coin Club

The Bellaire Coin Club recently announced the death of its longtime Treasurer Joseph T. Wells III, who passed away on July 26, after a courageous battle with cancer. He was 58 years old. Joe was a graduate of Rice University and also a successful businessman who began his career with the accounting firm of Arthur Anderson and later co-founded Wells & Bedard, P.C., a Houston, Texas based CPA firm.

Joe had served as treasurer of the Bellaire Coin Club for some 26 years, while taking only a short absence from the position to serve as the club's President for two of those years. Joe loved encouraging kids to become interested in coins and always had a supply of mercury dimes or silver quarters on hand to give young numismatists in charge when youth members bought items at the club's auctions. For Joe, one of life's greatest pleasures was to see a kid's face light up with a smile. He was also a firm supporter of the Bellaire Coin Club's recent efforts to promote and encourage the advancement of numismatics in the community, through donations of numismatic books, coin collector kits, and the sponsoring of financial support for young numismatist programs in the area. As it happened, Joe passed away exactly one week before the club's 32nd annual Bellaire Coin Show which was held in the Houston area, August 2-3. Immediately before the show began, Joe's passing was announced to all the dealers and support people in the room, and the show was dedicated to the memory of Mr. Joe Wells and Mr. A.J. Lamier, another life member and past President of the club who had died earlier in the year. It was noted that Joe and A.J. had been the best of friends. The room then observed one minute of silent prayer before the doors were opened to the general public. The 42 table show was quite successful, with over 1000 people estimated to be in attendance. In addition, over 190 area youths participated in the club's three "Children's Auction's" which were held in conjunction with the show as a way to encourage an interest in coin collecting throughout the community. Joe would have been very proud.

In recognition of Joe's accomplishments, the club will make a donation in his name to Boy Scout Troop 266, of the Sam Houston Area Council, from which Joe attained the rank of Eagle Scout.
